

About BIPO

Established in 2010 and headquartered in Singapore, BIPO is a global payroll and people solutions provider.

A trusted partner in 150+ global markets, BIPO offers a comprehensive suite of total HR solutions to enhance international business expansion. Our Human Capital Management suite, including BIPO HRMS and Athena BI, along with services like Global Payroll Outsourcing and Employer of Record (EOR) are at the core of our offerings.

We harness cutting-edge technology to deliver the best-in-class HR and payroll solutions. BIPO's advanced HR Management System (HRMS) and Athena BI, combined with innovative Global Payroll Outsourcing and Employer of Record technology platform, streamline HR processes, automate workflows, and deliver actionable HR and people insights. Our total HR solutions empower businesses to manage today's global people operations efficiently, fostering enhanced productivity and business efficiency.

Recognised as a major contender in Everest Group's 2022 Multi-country Payroll Solutions PEAK Matrix® Assessment, BIPO consistently receives industry recognition, including prestigious awards such as HR Vendors of the Year and Great Place to Work™ certifications. These honours reflect our commitment to service excellence.

In today's interconnected world, BIPO integrates traditional HR services with innovative technology, facilitating successful global business expansion.
